THE ANIMALS ARE COOKING UP SOMETHING SPECIAL
The Seventh Annual Celebrity Chef comes to Huntington Park!

(Columbus, OH) – Join the Capital Area Humane Society at Huntington Park, the new home of the Columbus Clippers, on Thursday, April 30 from 6:00 – 8:30 p.m. to experience a night of music, food and fun all to benefit homeless and abused animals in our community.

This event invites Columbus area celebrities, dignitaries and restaurant chefs to attend and share their favorite dishes. Guests will be able to sample these culinary masterpieces and participate in a raffle for an opportunity to win great prizes, with all the proceeds going to the Capital Area Humane Society. Guests can sample delectable treats from more than 30 restaurants and caterers including Handke's Cuisine, The Refectory, Basi Italia and City Barbecue. In addition, 27 local celebrities are scheduled to appear and help serve our guests including Congresswoman Mary Jo Kilroy, State Senator Jim Hughes, Judge Eric Brown, Commissioner Marilyn Brown, and the Columbus Crew Dance Team among others.

Huntington Park is located downtown at 330 Huntington Park Lane.

Tickets can be purchased online at www.caahs-pets.org for $45 in advance or at the door for $50. The band, Shucking Bubba Acoustic will provide the entertainment and an adoption center will be on-site for guests to meet a few of our adoptable pets.

Celebrity Chef would not be possible without the support of our presenting sponsors, The Columbus Clippers and Schoedinger Funeral and Cremation Services.

Can't make it to the event? The Capital Area Humane Society is always accepting donations to ensure the health and safety of Columbus' neglected, homeless and abused animals. Our wish list is located on our website at www.caahs-pets.org.
